John Lewis (standing at right), flanked by Thomas Kennedy (left) of Hazleton, Pa., and John P. Kennedy (center) of Cambridge, Ohio, addresses the 200th District presidents of the United Mine Workers at a meeting in the Hotel Roosevelt, New York, Nov. 30. After the meeting it was announced that a scheduled meeting of the 200-man policy committee, set for the afternoon, Nov. 30, had been cancelled.

Mayor Will Throw Switch To Light Shopping Centers

Ceremonies Will Take Place at Fair and John Streets; Downtown Lights Will Go On at Same Time; No Central Display

At 5 o'clock tomorrow night Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk will throw the switch which will transform Kingston's uptown business district into a gayly lighted Christmas shopping center.

Simultaneously, Christmas lights in the downtown shopping district will go on, according to Henry Singer, chairman of the Downtown Businessmen's lighting committee.

The ceremonies will take place at the corner of Fair and John streets. Present with the mayor will be Mathew Morgan, president of the Uptown Businessmen's Association; Jay Melton, chairman of the lighting committee, and other officers and members of the association.

The lights, which have been erected by the G. A. Trehan Company of Cohoes, will be "better than ever" both down and uptown, the respective chairmen reported. They will be closer together and there will be new center pieces.

Uptown, the lights extend along Albany avenue from the Empire Market to Clinton avenue, on Main street from Clinton avenue to Walton both Wall and Fair streets from Main to North Front street; on John street between Wall and Fair, and on North Front street from Fair street to Washington avenue.

Downtown, streamers and lights have been erected on Broadway from the Orpheum Theatre to the foot of Broadway, along the Strand to Haskinck avenue and on Perry street.

No official report was available this morning from Central Businessmen's Association officials, but no lights have been erected up to the present time in that area.

It was unofficially reported that plans for lighting central Broadway had to be abandoned because of the work on the Broadway grade crossing elimination.

Demands Are Renewed
London, Dec. 1 (AP)—Leaders of Britain's engineering and shipbuilding unions renewed demands for a pay increase for their 750,000 members. They pressed their demands yesterday despite pleas from the government and Trades Union Congress for workers to lay off pay raise demands until Britain's economic difficulties ease.

Food Rationing Ends
Paris, Dec. 1 (AP)—France ended the end of food rationing today. The French cabinet last night voted to take sugar and rice off the control list today, leaving only coffee distribution controlled by the government.

Australian Conservatives Take Heart At Defeat of New Zealand Laborites
Sydney, Australia, Dec. 1 (AP)—Some of Australia's Conservatives were heartened today by the defeat of New Zealand's Labor government after 14 years in office. Others adopted a "wait and see" attitude.

The question was: Would Australia's voters follow the lead of their island neighbors and end the Labor government's program of government controls and socialism when they elect a new parliament Dec. 10.

In Britain, where the British commonwealth's third and youngest Labor government also faces a general election before next July, mixed reactions were reported.

Communists Are Losers in Attempt To Paralyze Italy

Northern Factories Only Show Indication of Obeying; Termed Big Flop

Rome, Dec. 1 (AP)—Italy's Communists suffered a humiliating defeat today in their attempt to paralyze this nation in a 24-hour general strike.

Seven hours after the strike started at 6 a. m. (midnight, E.S.T.) its effects were scarcely felt. It was much more of a failure than a similar one-day general strike in France last Friday, and the second flop in a month for the Communist-led General Confederation of Labor.

Government spokesmen said the walkout was a failure except in Italy's big northern factories, the chief centers of Italian Communist strength.

Even the Communists laid little claim to success. A spokesman for the C.G.I.L. admitted that transportation was nearly normal in most cities.

Yesterday the C.G.I.L. had appealed to all workers in Italy to join the strike in protest against the death of two farmhands in a clash with police in the south.

Today, however, a C.G.I.L. spokesman said: "The strike didn't intend to paralyze the nation. It was only a limited protest."

The government had denounced the strike call as a "purely political" demonstration staged by the Communists.

The last Communists attempt on the labor front—only a month ago—also was a flop. The C.G.I.L. had called a 24-hour, eight-hour nationwide walkout in protest against the slaying of three peasants in clashes with police during the peasant invasion of private lands in the south.

The strike failures in Italy, differed in one respect from the recent one in France. In last Friday's demonstration, both the (Continued on Page 6, Col. 4)

Miners Resume 3-Day Week; Truman Delays Any Action

Chiang Leads Fight Against Chinese Reds

Colleagues Say Thomas Should Quit in Congress

Man in Court Is Not Same One Who Conducted Hearings, Judging From Manner

Washington, Dec. 1 (AP)—Fellow House members said today Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) ought to resign now that he is going to be sentenced on charges of cheating the government on his payroll.

And people on Capitol Hill who know Thomas well expect him to do just that.

Thomas faces up to 32 years in jail and a $40,000 fine. This is the result of his backing down completely and suddenly in his fight against charges he operated a salary kickback scheme with three women he put on the congressional payroll.

He changed his plea yesterday from "not guilty" to what the lawyers call "nolo contendere," that meant he wouldn't contest the government's charges.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff ordered him to come back a week from tomorrow for the sentencing.

That wound up a swift, two-and-a-half day trial.

In it, the government contended thousands of dollars were paid out for work that never was done. This money, it claimed, turned up in Thomas' bank account.

Furthermore, the government produced testimony that Thomas kept relatives on the payroll who did no work—one of them a 71-year-old bedridden woman.

Thomas doesn't have to resign, even if he goes to jail. If he doesn't, the House could expel him. Thomas still has a year to go on his seventh term.

The few House members now in town agree that Thomas ought to hand in his resignation.

"I should think he would have to resign," Rep. Wickersham (D-Okla.) told a reporter. "That would be best. I think all the other members would feel that way."

A Republican member, who asked that his name not be used, said "if it were myself, I would resign immediately."

Thomas himself was saying nothing, except that he was going home to Allendale, N. J., and come back next week. The attorney general of New Jersey ruled yesterday that if a vacancy occurs in the post now held by Thomas, it is the duty of Gov. Alfred E. DuSoleil to call a special election to fill it.

Kingston Will Get '50 Census Office

Five-County Headquarters Is Planned and 332 Persons Will Be Employed; Newburgh Also Gets Listing

Kingston will have a five-county state federal census office, and New York, the most populous state in the union, will require more workers than any other state, according to The Associated Press.

Nineteen office workers will be employed in the Kingston office, there will be 18 crew leaders and 235 enumerators. The local setup will be headquarters for Ulster, Dutchess, Greene, Schoharie and Columbia counties.

There will be a total of 20 up-state offices.

Nose-counting, to begin April 1 will require about 14,235 temporary government workers to take the census in the Empire State, which has a population of approximately 14,000,000.

About 7,700 will be employed in New York city and 6,526 elsewhere in the state.

The army of census workers will operate from 12 district offices in the metropolitan district and 20 outside of New York city.

These 32 offices will employ about 1,385 office workers and crew leaders to direct the activities of approximately 12,800 enumerators.

The latter group will ask the questions to get essential information about every resident of the state.

Besides determining the population, they obtain data on housing and agriculture.

The bureau estimates two weeks will be required to complete the population census in the urban areas and a month in the rural sections.

Agricultural census forms will be mailed to farmers in rural states in advance of the population enumeration. Completed forms will be picked up when the enumerators arrive.

The location of other upstate offices, the number of office workers they will employ, crew leaders, enumerators and the county or counties in which they will work, include:

Newburgh — 18, 17, 386; Delaware, Orange, Rockland and Sullivan counties.

Patchogue — 15, 13, 252; Suffolk county and part of Nassau.

Lewis Acts As 400,000 Quit Work

Shorter Mining Period Will Begin December 5, to Last Until Pacts Are Signed

Miners Grumble Rank and File Dislike Illness as Holidays Approach

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—John Lewis today put the nation's coal miners back on a three-day work week.

The mine union in effect acted as virtually all of the nation's 400,000 soft coal miners started work from the pits following the end of a three-week last-minute strike.

Lewis told hard and soft coal miners alike they would work Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at each week, starting next Monday until contact was signed with individual coal companies.

This announcement meant that the strike which began at midnight was partly over, and less than 11 hours later, after the soft coal miners went back to work, the hard coal miners would return to work until Monday.

It also meant that Lewis was abandoning his drive for national wide contracts in favor of a return to individual company contracts.

And it meant that Lewis was doing the coal will work part until, at least, during the Christmas season. Some grumbling had been reported from the lower end of the prospect of idleness with the holidays coming on.

Anthracite miners, most in eastern Pennsylvania, have been back at work since mid-September. Soft coal miners have worked only three weeks since Sept. 19.

Today's back-to-work order was issued at a three-postponed meeting of the United Mine Workers' 200-member policy committee.

The action came after presidential Press Secretary Charles C. Ross said at New York that President Truman would not intervene in the coal dispute for at least 48 hours.

The strike was still on at the time of Ross' statement.

Following is the resolution adopted by the policy committee: "Effective Monday, December 5, and continuing thereafter until further notice all mine workers will work only the first three days of each week, namely, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Only the irreducible minimum of maintenance work will be permitted on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This applies to all hard coal mines in the United States and all anthracite mines within the jurisdiction of districts 1, 7, 9 and 28."

The executive officers and scale representatives are authorized to make wage contracts with any or all individual coal companies. When such contracts are negotiated the three-day work week operating limitation becomes non-effective.

The president of the international union and his official associates are hereby instructed to administer effectively this policy and are given discretionary authority to meet any requirements of principle or detail not specified in the executive threat.

Calls on Reporters
Lewis called in reporters to the policy committee meeting on the mezzanine floor of the Hotel Roosevelt and had copies of the resolution distributed. He said: "The resolution speaks for itself and there will be no ambiguity."

Lewis first mentioned the possibility of making a three-day work week at the U. M. W. convention a year ago. He said then that employment in the industry should be stabilized "and if there is a three days work week it will work three days."

"If we are going to start a work week," he said, "let's start it right."

Alligerville Boy, 7, Killed by Gunshot

Details Are Lacking, Says Coroner Chipp; Parents Not in House

Douglas Beesmer, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Beesmer of Alligerville, was accidentally killed by the blast of a shotgun in his bedroom on the old Walter Brooks farm in that hamlet shortly before 8 a. m. today, Coroner Arthur Chipp of Kerkonkson reported.

Complete details of the shooting are lacking, since the only persons present were other small children, the coroner said. The boy's parents were both out of the house at the time, he said.

Investigations are being made by the coroner, Sgt. Arthur Reilly and Corporal Lawrence of the state police, Deputy Arthur Smith of the sheriff's office and by District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn.

The shooting was definitely accidental, but it has not been established whether it was self-inflicted or not, Coroner Chipp said. Douglas and other Beesmer children were in the home at the time, the coroner said. Apparently Douglas and a brother, Roger, 10, went to their bedroom to prepare for school when the gun accidentally discharged, he reported.

The load from the 12 gauge shotgun shell entered the top of the younger boy's shoulder near the neck, Coroner Chipp said. Death probably was instant, he said.

The boy's father, John Beesmer, is employed at the Schwab Lumber Company in Kerkonkson. Mrs. Beesmer works in a dress shop in the same village. They are former residents of Kerkonkson.

Americans Display Concern at Rising German Tendency

McCloy Says He's Unsure Whether Increase Is More Than Could Be Expected

Frankfurt, Germany, Dec. 1 (AP)—American officials showed increasing concern today over the question of rising German nationalism.

U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy said last night there had been "some rise" in nationalistic tendencies in western Germany. But he declared he was not certain whether the increase was more than could be expected.

A high commission survey group, basing its report on a poll of 3,800 Germans, found today that Nationalists are becoming more vocal with the lessening of Allied military controls.

The group reported some politicians were "beating drums" to gather Nationalist sympathy but that there was no evidence of any general upsurge of the Nazi-type thinking among the rank and file.

Earlier McCloy had said he was (Continued on Page 14, Col. 5)

12 Defense Chiefs Will Decide Who Will Call Action

U. S. Would Have Final Say on Strategy; Details of Plan Are Secret

Paris, Dec. 1 (AP)—The Atlantic Pact's 12 defense chiefs met today to decide whether the United States or Britain will have the biggest voice in calling the signals if western Europe is attacked.

As the strongest nation in the five-power Brussels Pact, Britain wants that group responsible for west European strategy. The U. S., dominant power of the 12-country Atlantic group, wants that alliance's high command to have the final say on all strategy.

The 12 defense ministers at today's meeting are expected to resolve this difference and approve an integrated defense plan linking the U. S. and Canada with western Europe.

The plan when approved goes to President Truman. If it satisfies him, $900,000,000 in U. S. military aid can be sent to Europe.

Too Much Security Curtails Liberties, Eisenhower Says

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, addressing a group of Scottish-Americans, said last night that too much emphasis is being placed on personal security at the expense of individual liberty.

The Columbia University president endorsed the doctrine of "Thomas Jefferson that the best government is the one which governs least."

"As we face our problems today and consider their nature," he said, "we measure the severity of those problems with the degree that we have drifted away from the simple principles with which we began."

"We can recognize the degree we have changed when the definition of a liberal is a man in Washington who wants to play the almighty with our money."

Addressing 1,100 members and guests of the St. Andrew Society of New York state at its 193rd annual banquet, Eisenhower commented on the characteristic thrift and independence of the Scots. Then he said:

"We seek an illusory thing called security. I wonder how many Scotsmen had the word 'security' in their adventures" during their fight for freedom.

12 Defense Chiefs

by the Atlantic powers' military leaders in long session in Washington and this week in Paris, are secret. In general, however, it divides the defense task in the entire Atlantic area among five overlapping region groups: The U. S. and Canada form one unit.

Another group is made up of the Brussels Pact signers—Britain, France, Belgium, Luxembourg and The Netherlands.

The Brussels treaty, signed before the Atlantic Pact, says all five nations will fight if one of them is attacked. But the Atlantic Pact guarantees only that each of the 12 member nations will "take such action as it deems necessary" if another member nation is an aggressor's target.

Earlier the British, whose Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery already headed the Brussels group's overall military command, tried to get the regional pact's guarantee of stronger assistance modified to conform to the Atlantic Treaty terms.

The British failed in that. Since they are still held to the strong commitment, they want corresponding influence over how their troops are used.

The U. S., however, and the other 10 Atlantic Pact nations, want the future Atlantic high command to be paramount, on strategy decisions as well as in name. Because of her great strength, America's point of view carries considerable weight.

Communists Are

Communist and the anti-Communist unions had been involved. The French demonstration, however, appeared more effective than this one in Italy. It was based upon demands for pay raises rather than a censure of the government.

Observers in Rome said the Communist weakness here could be traced to growing strength of the government-backed anti-Communist labor unions, now claiming some 2,500,000 members. The C.G.I.L. once claimed 6,000,000 members, but the membership now is estimated at a million less.

There has been only lukewarm support among industrial and commercial workers for the Communist campaign on behalf of the landless peasants. In the south, moreover, the C.G.I.L.'s lack of a war chest to pay strikers' wages while they are on a walkout is considered a factor in the diminishing strength of the Communist labor leaders.

Improved Courses For Vols Planned

New York state has plans for improving the training courses for volunteer firemen. B. Richter Township, chief of the Bureau of Fire, Division of Safety, told members of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association who received training-course certificates last night in the Myron J. Schantz school.

Mr. Schantz, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, presented the certificates to 200 firemen, who came from all sections of the county, despite hampering weather, to attend the graduation rites.

The guest speaker stressed the value of continuing the courses and the firemen were also addressed by Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy of Kingston, who is chairman of the advisory board. Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk delivered the address of welcome.

Intermediate training courses are scheduled this month in various areas and the first will be held at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in Esopus. Advance courses will be given later in the winter and new basic courses are scheduled to start next April.

Last night's program opened with the National Anthem, by Donald Sweeney, who was accompanied by Alice Millington. Invocation was by Magr. Stephen Connelly of St. Joseph's Church and benediction was by the Rev. Frank Gollnick, of Trinity Lutheran Church, fire department chaplain.

Today's Business Mirror

By RADER WINGET
(For Sun-Dragon)

New York Nov. 30 (AP)—There's a tiny dip in gasoline prices that will bear watching. The average cost of fuel to the motorists is slipping away from the highest peak in 23 years.

The cause is the weather which has been blowing hot and cold at the wrong time. Carefully made calculations of petroleum experts have been upset. In their efforts to do something about it they have shaved prices on various types of fuel.

But in the midst of it, filling station price wars have broken out here and there around the country. The motorist has the advantage of this cut-throat competition. Such price wars are a red flag to the big operators. They water them carefully and note their extent and duration.

You shouldn't get the idea from all this that you can drive into your corner gas station and fill up at a big saving today. Gasoline prices are on a regional basis. Some dealers have cut and some haven't. And the price war means a small.

Throughout the country the average price of regular gasoline at filling stations of 50 representative cities started out this month at 20.33 cents a gallon. That is without taxes. These average 6.64 cents a gallon a record.

In mid-November the average price was 20.41 cents a gallon in these same cities. That's the highest price on gas since the average for 1928 which was 20.97 cents.

So this month's average is only 8.10ths of a cent lower than that 23-year high point.

But it's lower. That's the important point. And right now the big producers and distributors are pushing their wholesale prices still lower by a few tenths of a cent.

Some have cut their prices at the retail level. So far that has been restrained. The wholesale cuts are so new and the general situation is so uncertain—that there hasn't been a general move yet to pass the savings along to the ultimate consumer. It all started back with the end of gasoline rationing at the close of the war. Motorists with their "A" and "B" stickers still on their windshields burned up the road—and gas—in a light-hearted release from wartime restrictions.

Supply kept ahead of demand until the summer of 1948, when a lot of tanks went dry. Filling station operators dusted off their old signs, "Sorry, No Gas." There was talk of imposing rationing again. But the petroleum industry met the challenge and produced the shortages out of existence.

By the first part of this year the balance between production of gasoline and fuel oil was upset. In making gas, too much fuel oil was produced. The two are tied together.

For example, the new $60,000,000 Texas Co. refinery opened yesterday in Westville, N. J., is geared to turn crude oil into 55 per cent high grade gas and 20 per cent middle distillate which includes some heating oil, besides other petroleum products.

With an over-supply of home oil only this year, the price headed down. Sellers started posting price guarantees and went on into the summer season with attractive discounts for hot weather storage buying. This fall prices rose and producers waited for cool and cold weather to spur demand. But the weather was flakey. It stayed warm. People didn't buy. Discounts were given by some producers at the wholesale level to encourage the flow of fuel oil into storage. Now all the producers hope for is a normal winter so buying will be normal.

But in this bout with the weather, gasoline stocks piled up as heating oil was produced in anticipation of winter furnace demand. The current round of wholesale price reductions on gasoline is aimed at the refinery, a spokesman for one larger distributor said, rather than at the motorist. He said the idea is to put the pressure of lower prices on the refinery to get him to cut back his gasoline production.

The reasoning is that the average motorist won't rush out and buy more gas if the price is lowered only a few tenths of a cent. Sharply lower prices might stimulate that kind of demand, but not a few pennies the motorist would save in a week of driving.

At the retail level, maybe it's just general unrest that is causing the spate of price wars. The most persistent is in Milwaukee. There was a price cutting spree there in September, and there is another one now. One big distributor mentioned short-lived "surpluses" in the south and on the west coast. And in some cities there are reports of filling station discounts to old customers and large buyers.

These things provide a spectacle of little red-headed pins on the petroleum distribution maps. They aren't thick enough to cause concern in the ranks of the producers. But there is an anxious glance at the map now and again—especially since current average prices are backing away from that 23-year high point.

Experts Doubt 'Painting' Is Genuine Van Gogh

New York, Dec. 1 (UP)—A jury of art experts says there is "little or no doubt" that a painting bought by a Hollywood producer for more than $50,000, is a genuine Van Gogh.

The painting, "Study by Candelight," belongs to William Goetz, executive producer of Universal Pictures, who says it is an original self-portrait by Vincent Van Gogh, 19th century Dutch master.

Goetz recently said in Hollywood he had no doubt that the painting was authentic. It has been bought for by Dr. Jacob de la Faille, author of several books on Van Gogh.

However, the painter's nephew

Vincent W. Van Gogh, who owns the bulk of the Van Gogh collection now being exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum, had expressed doubts of its authenticity. The younger Van Gogh had said he would not bring his collection to New York for exhibition unless he could be assured that it would not be seized by Goetz, would bring no legal action against him because he had publicly doubted the picture's authenticity.

So the Metropolitan got Goetz to agree that the picture would be submitted to a jury of experts. The Metropolitan called in Alfred Barr of the Museum of Modern Art, James Bluff of Boston, George Stout of Worcester, Mass., and Sheldon Keck of the Brooklyn Museum.

They studied the picture made various tests and declared they were "unwilling to accept the painting as an original Van Gogh.

Gogh/ said he bought the painting from the Associated American Art Galleries last year, but that the way the galleries got it was a "business secret."

Indians taught the American colonists how to paint over crops of squash, pumpkin, and beans between the rows.

Delhi Would Be 'Ghost Town' If O. & W. Quit, Is Feeling

By JOHN RANDOLPH
New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—The New York, Ontario and Western Railway—now up for sale in federal bankruptcy court—has had to take a lot of kidding over the years.

People call the O & W the "Old and Weary." They smile over its "flexible" schedules. And they laugh when they hear it has torn up its own track to get ties. There must be something about a "this year, next year, sometime, never" railroad that's naturally funny.

But a lot of folks don't get the joke. There are the merchants, the farmers and the manufacturers in O & W towns, and the farmers in the surrounding areas. They feel that an old and weary railroad is better than a dead one. They like a flexible schedule better than none at all. And they don't give a damn where the O & W gets its ties—just so it gets them.

There's a reason for this loyal support. In spite of all its troubles, the 544-mile O & W still is doing a vitally important job for a lot of people.

For it's a simple fact that a railroad can do certain things that no other form of transport can do. Buses can handle lots of small passenger runs more efficiently. Trucks can handle "less than carload" freight quicker and cheaper on short hauls.

But when it comes to something big, or something far away, the railroad—any railroad—has everything else on land skinned a mile.

Take an imaginary case. Say there's a lumber dealer in Delhi, which is served only by the O & W. He wants a big shipment of Douglas fir, which is cut in Oregon and Washington.

All he has to do is telegraph an order and a railroad car pulls up on the siding of a lumber mill in Seattle or Portland. His lumber is stacked aboard. The car is sealed. So many days later it pulls up on the lumber yard siding at Delhi and is unloaded. And that's all there is to it. The boxcar is just a big package on wheels—they wrap it up on the West coast and deliver it in the East. Clear across the country without shifting a load.

Carloads Are Cheaper
Wherever carload lots are concerned, the railroad has a pretty big edge. It's so cheap compared to trucking that merchants get big discounts—sometimes up to 20 per cent—for ordering by carload. In these days of narrow profit margin, that can be the difference between profit and loss, success or failure.

The public may see a few rust-colored cars on a lonely siding and think nothing of them. But out of those cars come their refrigerators, their furniture, the lumber and wallboard, hat builds their houses, the coal that heats their plants, the feed that supports dairy cattle. And it works in reverse, too. Shipping out by carload is cheaper, too.

So if an occasional citizen laughs at the O & W and its plight, the business men love the railroad.

Just listen to some of them. Acting Mayor Charles Aiken of Delhi—"Without the O & W, Delhi would be a ghost town. It would be just too bad a service ended."

Harold V. Owens, president of Eastern Rock Products Inc., at Utica—"To us as manufacturers, the closing of the O & W would be a serious blow. During the past few years the quality of O & W service has improved tremendously. We are well satisfied."

Mayor Samuel Mitchell of Middletown where the O & W shops are located—"Abandonment would be disastrous."

Fred Germain, Middletown's Chamber of Commerce executive—"It would be most detrimental to Middletown."

Morris Abraham, secretary of the Mountain Hotelmen's Federation at Monticello—"Discontinuance of the road would set Sullivan county back 25 years. Present building plans would stop. It would be most detrimental."

Mayor Ben E. Collier of Utica—"Abandonment of this line would seriously affect the economy of our industries and the city of Utica. Carload service is very satisfactory. This is the only railroad servicing several industrial plants and coal yards."

John H. Dyett, vice president-secretary of the Rome Cable Corp., Rome—"We have used the line 13 years and it has provided excellent service. A continuation is important to this company."

George Jaquis, foreman of the Delaware County Farmers Cooperative Association, Delhi—"We have no kicks. The schedule is not exact, but it would be a cause for worry only if it didn't come at all. If O & W service is ended, we'd probably have to switch from coal to oil—an expensive operation."

Peter J. Short, chairman of the Oswego Harbor and Dock Commission—"The O & W fills a very definite need. Abandonment would reduce competition and quality of service, reduce taxes, and endanger perishables."

John M. Gill, member of the Oswego Harbor and Dock Commission—"Service is excellent."

Al Cohen, general manager of the Inter-County Farmers Cooperative Association, Monticello—"Abandonment would be a major catastrophe. It would force us to move our organization to some other point. Trucking could not be done economically."

Urban W. Newman, chairman of the Oneida County Board of Supervisors—"Even more serious than the loss of taxes would be the discontinuance of transportation. For some communities it would mean the loss of all connecting lines to Rome. The O & W has answered the demand. It is greatly needed."

Henry Temes, Woodridge attorney and member of the Sullivan County Chamber of Commerce—"Abandonment would be disastrous. Some of our industries could not survive."

I. L. Hozomeyer, publisher of the Delaware Republican, a weekly newspaper at Delhi—"If the service were ended the community's whole economy would be changed."

These testimonials tell why talk of abandonment sets these communities to forming committees to defend the railroad.

The doubled quantity of general freight in the last 30 years is encouraging to the communities and the trustees. If such a trend lasts, and the trustees are hoping that it will, the O & W, in one form or another might again pull into the black.

Two things are certain. The 70-year-old railroad wants to keep going, and a lot of people want to keep it going.

These Things Will Happen If The Anti-Trust Lawyers Have Their Way

When the anti-trust lawyers from Washington filed their suit against A&P, we told the American people, our customers, our suppliers and our employees how this attack would affect them.

We said that this attack, if successful, would mean the end of A&P as you know it.

We said that it would mean higher food prices for American consumers.

We said that if they succeed in destroying A&P the way would be cleared for the destruction of other efficient large-scale retailers.

We thought the American people were entitled to know about this threat to their welfare and standard of living.

Since that time, however, the anti-trust lawyers have been making speeches, talking over the radio, writing letters and giving stories to the newspapers, in which they say we are all wrong.

They say that this suit will not close a single A&P store; and that instead of raising food prices it will lower them.

And they have tried to give the impression that nobody will be hurt by this decision except the present owners of A&P.

We don't think that the American people want to be confused by these statements. We know that when they have the facts, they will understand that this case can affect the living standards and the way of life of every American citizen.

Here are the facts:

It Will Destroy A&P

The anti-trust lawyers have repeatedly stated that "the suit will not result in the closing of a single A&P store", and that "the purpose of the suit is to enjoin A&P from continuing activity which has been held to violate the law."

The fact is that the suit is designed not only to "enjoin" A&P from alleged illegal activities, but actually to destroy the company.

Here is what they have asked the court to do:

Break up A&P's retail stores into seven groups, each of which must be sold to different owners, and operated under new management.

Order us to sell A&P's factories, which produce many of the fine foods you find in our stores, to still other new owners.

Prevent any of the seven groups of stores from operating any of the factories.

None of the present owners, who have made A&P what it is today, can have anything to do with either the stores or the factories.

The first A&P store was opened 90 years ago. For the past 50 years the company has been managed by George L. Hartford and John A. Hartford.

These are the men who have pioneered the policy of low-cost, low-profit, low-price food retailing which has won A&P the patronage of millions of American families and given them more good food for their money.

If the anti-trust lawyers have their way, these men and other company executives will be completely out of the picture. No one can predict what the policies of the new owners of the various parts of A&P will be.

No one can predict that they will sell the same quality food at the same low prices, or that they will keep the same employees, or give them the same high wages, short hours, pensions and security.

Nor, despite the anti-trust lawyers' statement, can anyone tell how many A&P stores will remain open or will be closed.

So, while there may be a food store where your A&P is now located, it won't be your A&P store.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers win their suit it will mean the end of A&P as you know it.

Your Food Will Cost More

The anti-trust lawyers have repeatedly stated that the suit will not increase, but should decrease, grocery prices.

Anybody who has ever shopped in an A&P store, or has ever taken a high-school course in economics, knows better than that.

Everyone knows that A&P's policy has always been to keep costs and profits at a minimum so that it can sell good food cheap.

The very heart of the anti-trust lawyers' case is that A&P's methods, which they claim are illegal, have enabled the company to undersell competitors.

How can anyone possibly say that you will get lower food prices by eliminating the company that has done so much to bring them down?

Actually, there is no question that this suit, if successful, will mean higher food prices for A&P customers.

Here is just one of a number of reasons:

We manufacture many of the quality foods we sell in our stores, such as Boker, Red Circle and Eight O'Clock coffees, Ann Page foods, White House milk, and many others.

The anti-trust lawyers admit that we pass along these manufacturing savings to our customers in the form of lower prices.

But, the anti-trust lawyers have asked the court to order us to get rid of our manufacturing facilities, which would put an end to all these savings.

This means that if these A&P brands continued to be manufactured, you would have to pay higher prices for them wherever you found them.

The anti-trust lawyers say that food prices would go down in other stores. They claim that food manufacturers would be able to sell cheaper to other grocers because they would not have to make up alleged losses they now incur in selling to A&P.

This, of course, is pure nonsense. The suppliers who voluntarily seek our business and are now rushing to our defense obviously find it profitable to deal with A&P. Actually, their sales to this company enable them to build up their volume, reduce their costs, and sell more cheaply to all grocers.

The elimination of A&P from the picture would tend to increase, rather than decrease, the wholesale cost of food; and this, in turn, will be reflected in increases in retail prices.

Make no mistake about it. If the anti-trust lawyers succeed in putting A&P out of business you will find your food bill is higher.

Others Will Be Hurt

The anti-trust lawyers have insisted that this suit will not affect other distributors, nor will it destroy any efficiencies of mass distribution.

The fact is that the anti-trust lawyers ask the court to break up the company, make it get rid of its admittedly legal manufacturing operations and in general destroy many of the efficiencies which have enabled it to sell food cheaper.

If such an attack is successful, it immediately raises the likelihood of similar attacks on other chain stores.

The anti-trust lawyers are saying that they "do not contemplate any other suits of this nature at this time."

But that does not mean that they cannot undertake such suits at any future time if they win this case.

As a matter of fact, the anti-trust lawyers made practically the same allegations against two of our largest competitors that they are making against us. And it can also be used as the basis for an attack against other grocers and merchants in other lines.

There are today literally thousands of chain stores, voluntary groups and individual merchants operating with the same methods and in the same pattern here under attack.

If A&P is destroyed, no businessman could safely pursue an aggressive sales policy designed to lower prices and give his customers a better deal if by so doing he takes business away from any competitor.

Even if the anti-trust lawyers have no intention now of prosecuting other suits, a decision against A&P will establish a precedent that could be used by the present anti-trust lawyers, or any future anti-trust lawyers, to destroy any efficient business that buys cheaply, sells cheaply, and grows big in the process.

Such a decision would mean the end of the vigorous, healthy price competition which has given this country the highest standard of living ever enjoyed by any people anywhere in the history of the world.

The anti-trust lawyers are trying to give a new interpretation to the anti-trust laws that, instead of preserving competition, will reduce competition.

They are trying, by court decision, to impose a new kind of economic policy on the people of this country.

Make no mistake about it. If they succeed in destroying A&P they will be destroying the method of distribution that has helped make the American standard of living the envy of the world.

Mrs. Emily Coffey, 23 Van Deusen avenue, suffered first and second degree burns of the left hand and abrasions of the right hand and wrist in her attempt last night to remove a flaming oil stove from the plumbing shop of Edward D. Coffey Sons on Van Deusen avenue.

Firemen were called at 7:35 p. m., and men of the Wiltwyck station quenched the blaze with a booster line after Mrs. Drillon S. Moore, 24 Van Deusen avenue, pulled the stove from the one-story frame structure with a hoist.

Mrs. Coffey was treated at home.

Pastors to Speak On Christmas Seals

Clergymen throughout the county will observe Christmas Seals Sunday on December 4 to bring to the attention of their parishioners the importance of community control of tuberculosis.

Ulster county's 1949 Christmas Seal sale, part of the nationwide annual appeal for funds to fight tuberculosis, will continue until New Year's. The seal sale is conducted by the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association to raise funds for its tuberculosis prevention and control program.

The quota for the seal sale in the county is $22,000, the minimum needed for the association's 1950 program, according to Harry S. Ensign, president of the Tuberculosis Association.

Several clergymen will mention the work of the association from their pulpits on Sunday and many of the churches will give messages on their printed programs concerning the importance of the Christmas Seal sale and its contribution to community control of tuberculosis.

EAT WELL for Less

IT'S TIME FOR CUT-OUT COOKIES

CUT-OUT COOKIES—These Christmas molasses cookies are packed with holiday gaiety.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

With molasses, eggs and cooking fats all on the plentiful list and with the Christmas season just beginning, this certainly is cookie-making time.

Let's begin with molasses cut-out cookies, using this tested recipe and cut out stars, angels, Christmas trees, etc., or some of the new plastic cookie forms.

To save time and fuel, use two baking sheets with low sides or no sides at all to insure even browning—each about 2 inches smaller than the oven. One sheet of cookies can be baking while the other one is being filled.

Before rolling, chill dough in refrigerator to permit handling of dough without adding more flour. When rolling, work with half or less of the dough at a time, keeping remainder in refrigerator until needed.

Flour rolling pin and board lightly—only enough to keep dough from sticking.

Dip cutter in flour each time to prevent sticking. Cut cookie shapes close together, to get as many as possible from the first rolling of the dough; reroiled dough does not make as tender cookies.

Using a spatula, carefully lift the cut cookies from board to baking sheet.

Adjust oven to temperature specified. Molasses cookies burn easily. If cookies are not brown enough in center, yet do around edges, put them about 5 to 6 inches below broiler flame until right color is obtained—watching constantly.

Remove from baking sheet with a spatula; place them to cool on a wire cake rack in a single layer. When completely cooled, pack in air-tight boxes or in cookie jar, with waxed paper between the layers. Keep tightly covered.

For Christmas gifts, pack in flat boxes and wrap each cookie in aluminum foil or waxed paper and fill box with shredded colored paper or cellophane.

Molasses Cut-Out Cookies. One-half cup shortening, 1/2 cup sugar, 2/3 cup New Orleans type molasses, 1 egg, 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract.

Slowly melt shortening, cool. Add sugar, molasses and eggs; beat well. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and allspice; add to first mixture; mix well. Roll in waxed paper; chill. Cookies hold shape better if rolled and cut on greased and lightly floured baking sheet.

Rolling on a board and transferring to baking sheet. Roll dough evenly 1/4-inch thick.

Dust cut-out cookie pattern lightly with flour to prevent sticking; lay pattern on dough and cut around pattern with knife. Lift excess dough from around cookie shapes.

Decorate with red cinnamon drops, silver candies, and vari-colored candy sprinkles.

Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Remove from baking sheet immediately and cool on rack.

BREAKFAST: Grapes and pears, oatmeal, raisin toast, butter or fortified margarine, coffee, milk.

LUNCHEON: Baked beans, Boston brown bread, butter or fortified margarine, apple and cabbage slaw, molasses cookies, tea, milk.

DINNER: Cranberry juice, fried frozen fish fillets, tartar sauce, parsley potatoes, green beans with sautéed almonds, mixed green salad, French dressing, devil's food cake, coffee, milk.

Chiang Leads . . .

How long Chengtu would last as the seat of government. One month was an optimistic estimate. In that time, many said, the Reds would have covered the 170 miles that separate Chengtu from Chungking. (Honk Kong press reports said the fast-moving Communist troops of Gen. Liu Po-cheng already were streaking out from Chungking to take Hochwan, 35 miles northwest toward Chengtu. Another column was reported rushing westward from Chungking in an attempt to sever the highway to Chengtu and trap Nationalist stragglers. Many retreating troops were said to be bogged down in the heavy flow of refugee traffic toward Chengtu.)

all starve together," he told 3,000 delegates to that convention in Cincinnati.

Last July 1, Lewis scrapped his "no-contract, no-work" policy by putting the three-day week into operation and extended the old agreement. On September 19, the miners walked out saying they were starting a "no-day work week." Lewis authorized anthracite miners, chiefly in eastern Pennsylvania, and soft coal miners west of the Mississippi to return to work but the 380,000 other soft coal miners stayed on strike until Lewis and his policy committee called a truce November 9.

Lewis' strategy is in the form of a compromise because it keeps the coal miners at work before Christmas, reducing the threat of a revolt among the coal diggers who have been reported in several states to be grumbling about meager earnings this year.

President Holds Off

Key West, Fla., Dec. 1 (AP)—Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said today President Truman will not intervene in the coal strike for at least 48 hours.

Asked at a news conference when the situation might become Truman to invoke the Taft-Hartley Act, Ross declined to say.

"It is not an emergency today, nor will it be tomorrow," he said. "How much longer the President might wait before seeking action, Ross declined to say."

"Will this be an emergency in 15, 30 or 60 days?" he was pressed. "All I can say is it is not an emergency today, nor will it be tomorrow," Ross declared.

Americans Display turned there were "large and groups still motivated by nationalism in its sinister sense," meaning "Nazism" as distinguished from healthy patriotism.

Some American officials have privately expressed concern at the increase of Nazi-type publications, particularly in Germany, throughout Germany. Nationalists and neo-Nazi elements have moved more brazenly into the open.

The high commission poll found an almost unanimous desire for unity of the Soviet Zone with the Allied western zones, but about 70 per cent said they didn't want unification at the price of "communism."

German pollsters under American supervision found in their questioning of people in Berlin, Bremen and the American occupation zone that only five per cent believed Nazi-type of nationalism associated with dictatorship and militarism. Half of those questioned could furnish no definition of nationalism at all, 66 per cent said they believed in a "patriotic" kind of nationalism without dictatorship or militarism.

Colleagues Say

cupping chin in hand or chewing his glasses.

There was nothing of the tough-looking, gavel-banging little man who used to back at witnesses while presiding over spectacular hearings of the House Un-American Activities Committee. Thomas was committee chairman in the last Congress. He still is the senior Republican member.

His prosecutor was U. S. Attorney George Morris Fay. In the past, Thomas has been on Fay's side, as a witness in trials of Communist Leader Eugene Dennis and Hollywood figures accused of contempt of the House committee.

Fay pulled no punches against Thomas. He did agree to tear up an indictment against Thomas' former secretary, 64-year-old Miss Helen Campbell. Thomas and Miss Campbell were accused together of conspiring to set up a kickback plan under which:

1. Miss Campbell got her niece, Myra Midkiff, and her maid, Arnette Minor, to put their names on Thomas' office payroll—for kickback but not working purposes.

2. The Midkiff and Minor pay checks were deposited in Miss Campbell's bank account here.

3. Miss Campbell in turn deposited her own checks for the same or similar amounts in Thomas' account at Allendale.

Thomas alone was accused on three counts of listing Mrs. Jacqueline Jiff as an employee of the Un-American Activities Committee and taking kickbacks from her.

Warning Issued Against Overbuilding of Schools

Increasing enrollment in the schools in New York state is a temporary problem, rather than a permanent one, a study of future enrollment and birth rates made by the Citizens Public Expenditure Survey shows. The organization warned against building new schools, saddling the state with heavy debt for classrooms and facilities that may be needed in a few years.

A study, made public in the publication of the state-taxpayers group, found from data published by the State Education Department the following:

Peak enrollment is expected in 1957-58 school year, after an enrollment decline will begin.

The peak of postwar births already has passed. In 1947, peak of postwar births was reached, and in 1948 there was a decline in the number of births, continuing decline in births is predicted.

The past World War II enrollment peak in 1938 will exceed post-World War I peak by 4.9 per cent. For each group of children registered in the schools in the state in 1938, post-World War I enrollment there will be only one added in 1958.

By 1963, five years after the peak of enrollment is passed, the number of children registered will fall to the levels prevailing in 1938.

ing in the years just prior to World War II.

The survey cautioned against stampeding into a school building program for which there is a scant or non-existent need.

According to the State Education Department, in some communities there will be no great increase in the number of children; in some there are already adequate facilities (State Education Department leaflet, Education for Veterans' Children).

The research group also warned against comparisons of future enrollments with those of the present time. "Such comparisons do not tell the whole story," the survey said, "for postwar enrollments are at the lowest levels since the early 1920's. Our schools have accommodated almost as many children as they will be called upon to handle when the next enrollment peak is reached."

According to reports of the State Education Department, registration has declined steadily since 1934-35, reaching the low point in 1945-46. The reversal in the downward enrollment trend has brought only a mild rise over the 1945-46 low. Not until the school year 1952-53 does the State Education Department expect registration to return to the level prevailing before World War II. By 1954-55 registration will surpass the 1934-35 level. In 1962-63, five years after the anticipated peak, the Education Department predicts registration will have dropped to approximately the level prevailing just before World War II.

Supplying adequate school buildings and facilities is a local responsibility.

Beware Coughs From Common Colds That HANG ON

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis responsibility, the survey said. Each school district will have to solve its problem in the light of its own facts: (1) increased enrollment is a temporary rather than a permanent situation; and (2) the effect on enrollment of war-time births will be like a wave through the school systems.

Instead of investing heavily in new buildings which may stand empty in future years, the survey suggested the following alternative approaches to gradually rising enrollments:

1. Raising pupil-teacher ratios in accordance with the recommendation of the Regents' Inquiry into the Character and Cost of Public Education in New York State.

2. Reclaiming for classroom use space in existing schools which has been converted to non-classroom use as registration has declined in the period since 1935.

3. Constructing temporary building facilities where necessary to accommodate the peak registration years and abandon them when the peak is passed.

As Pegler Sees It

In a memoir professing to establish truth for the judgment of history, but that many, in fact, most of the reviewers who have praised her book are so madly infatuated that they are not competent to write critical appraisals.

I find no discussion of Elliott Roosevelt's loans, surely a landmark on the serpentine, descending course of American moral corruption, pursuant thereto, any state of the corrupt part that the late mahatma played in the swindle by which Elliott not only got off the hook for more than a quarter of a million but got back his collateral, which then secured his continuing obligation to provide for a divorced wife and children.

Elliott actually clipped his victims for about half a million in these particular operations for he had blown the original dough on ventures which we are not privy to, and that isn't half even to a Roosevelt.

upon it, inasmuch as several White House scoundrels and other educators, with the backstairs point of view and morals have dwelt upon the great, garter-snappings of unrecorded history and the escapades of Wilson and Harding, why are we denied similar mischief in the circle of the Sacred Family?

We may assume that Mrs. Olive Capper knew whereof she wrote when she put it down that Roosevelt ran a fever over another woman in the early period of his marriage to Eleanor and that his wife gave him and the party of the third part a wiggling and put it up to him to get a divorce or "quit" "kicking" and kicking the straw that way, Olive was "literate" in the White House social horde.

What was sacred about this guy, anyway? What makes some book reviewers believe they have a right to foist the widow's work on the public as a truthful work and to go into lathers of adulation when their proper mission is to examine it for literary quality and to the best of their knowledge or ignorance, give honest opinion of the author's statements?

Politics kicks up weird effects these crazy days. Here we find MacCallis, a stately old short-story, baby-powder and lingerie blatter by a strange editorial miscalculation, turned into the personal and political organ of the widow and the left-wing gang, and committed in advance to her propaganda; and yet appealing for advertising revenue to the conservative giants of American industry and for circulation to their equally sensitive wives and daughters.

Hudson Has Costly Fire; Loss $75,000

Hudson, N. Y., Dec. 1 (AP)—A $75,000 fire last night damaged a clothing factory in the center of this city. Fire Chief William A. Moore, who estimated the loss, said the blaze started in the cellar of the two-story brick building occupied by the Hudson Garment Co. The cellar and part of the first floor were damaged. Three firemen were treated for smoke poisoning and a fourth suffered a lacerated hand. The firm, which makes jackets for the armed forces, employs more than 100 persons. The workers had left for the day.

Cause of the fire was not determined. Street cars formerly used in New York city now operate in Vienna, Lima, Peru, and Sao Paulo, Brazil.

School District Wins Appeal for Return of Land

Kripplebush School District No. 5, town of Marbletown, has won its appeal to the Commissioner of Education for the return to the district of nine parcels of property which were transferred to School Districts 5, 10 and 11 of the town of Marbletown through consent of the trustees of the districts and the district superintendent of schools of the Third Supervisory District last May.

On May 9, last, District Superintendent Lester J. Roosa made three orders altering the boundaries of Common School District No. 6, so that there was transferred from the said district, nine parcels of property. This meant a loss of assessed valuation amounting to $47,714 or over one fifth of the assessed valuation of the district. Similarly the loss of land would have been one eighth of the total area of the entire district. The orders were made on the written consent of the trustees of the districts involved.

This procedure resulted in an appeal being made by taxpayers of the district to Commissioner of Education Francis T. Spaulding, asking that the order be set aside and said valuation be returned in view of the fact that School District No. 6, had voted in an appropriation for the purpose of building a new school.

The memorandum of Commissioner Spaulding in his order restoring the nine parcels to District No. 6, in part says: "Since the early part of the fall of 1948, there has been discord in Common School District No. 6, Town of Marbletown. It culminated in a proceeding having been commenced for the removal of William Schwartz, trustee, on February 26, 1949. A hearing on said application for removal was held on May 9, 1949 and a decision was rendered May 11, 1949 removing said trustee. His consent to the alteration of school district boundaries herein was executed on May 7, 1949 which was subsequent to the commencement of the aforesaid removal proceedings but prior to his removal from office."

It is claimed by the applicants that the said consent to the order of the district superintendent was granted by said trustee for the purpose of impeding and preventing District No. 6 from progressing with its building program. The willful failure and refusal of the said trustee to fulfill his duties in respect to accepting a deed to a site for a new school building and proceeding with the erection thereof were the causes for his said removal."

Continuing, Commissioner Spaulding says: "Nevertheless, upon all of the facts in the papers before me on this appeal, I am moved to conclude that the consent of the trustee *** was not given in good faith but, as claimed by appellants, was designed to obstruct and, if possible, frustrate the wishes of the qualified voters of said district, in its said building program. The said consent should be vacated and set aside and the respondents' order which is founded in part thereon should likewise be annulled. The appeal is sustained."

An order setting aside the consent of William Schwartz, trustee, and the order of the district superintendent, is entered by the commissioner.

Bernard A. Culloton appeared for the petitioners and Lounsbury & Lonslein of Ellenville appeared for respondents.

Hatchet, Knife Murder
New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—A 59-year-old grocer was found slain in his lower east side shop last night. The murder weapons—a hatchet and knife—were found near his body, and the cash register was empty except for a few cents. The victim, Lora Lzraty, was found dead in the store at 168 Orchard street by his son, Marvin, 17. The boy went to the store when his father failed to return at the usual time. The grocer had been struck on the head with the hatchet and stabbed in the chest with the knife.

New York, Dec. 1 (U.P.)—The C.I.O. Textile Workers Union plans to renew all its contracts in the woolen and worsted industry for another year without change—with the exception of about a

14 Hunters Meet Accidental Death

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 1 (U.P.)—Fourteen hunters met accidental death in New York state during the deer season.
The season ended in the central and western sections and the Catskills yesterday and in the Adirondacks Nov. 27.
The list of fatalities reported showed that seven hunters were shot accidentally by companions or other hunters, three were killed by accidental discharges of their own guns and four, all in the same party, were drowned in Lake Eaton in Hamilton county.
In addition, three died of heart attacks while hunting and a retired forest ranger, George Cole, 73, of Long Lake, died of a heart seizure Nov. 19, while aiding the search for the body of one of the four drowned hunters.

New Palitz Players Will Present 'Angel Street'

Tension and excitement mount the stage at New Palitz State Teachers College Friday and Saturday evenings, December 2 and 3, as the New Palitz Players present the mid-Victorian thriller "Angel Street." Curtain time is 8:30. There is no admission charge.
Movie-goers will recognize the play from the film version, entitled "Gaslight," starring Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer. The story centers around the efforts of Mr. Manningham to obtain his wife's fortune by driving her insane. She is a high-strung nervous creature victimized by her suave, sophisticated and greedy husband. Tension mounts slowly and subtly from the opening curtain to the dramatic climax.
Starring in the two lead roles are Henry Werle, New Palitz senior from Poughkeepsie, and Miss Anne Regan, sophomore from Central Valley. Mr. Werle has played leading roles in several previous Palitz productions including "Outward Bound" and "The Valiant." Miss Regan proved herself in the role of Mrs. Sycamore in "You Can't Take It With You" given at the college last spring. They are supported by Patrick Buonaglie as Rough, the detective, Lepore Boni as Nancy, Sue Korol as Elizabeth, and Daniel Vezani and Walter Purham as policemen. Director of the production is Miss Vera Rushforth, dramatic coach at the college.

Unions May Merger
New York, Dec. 1 (U.P.)—Merger of the United Farm Equipment Workers with the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers got a legal green light yesterday from the New York State Supreme Court. Justice Morris Eder ruled that a referendum in which farm equipment workers voted to affiliate with the U.E. was authorized, and was not an act of bad faith on the part of union officers. Both unions have been expelled from the C.I.O. on grounds that they are communistic. Officers of the Farm Equipment Workers District Six had sought to block the merger, and asked the court to hold the referendum

Jersey Community Runs Out of Water

Newark, N. J., Dec. 1 (AP)—New Jersey's critical water shortage has become a grim reality to the 1,500 residents of Roosevelt in Monmouth county—they have no water at all.

New Jersey's largest reservoir—Wanaque in Butler—has only 60 days' water supply left. It serves many cities, including Bayonne and Newark, the state's largest city.

And there is little hope for immediate relief in sight. Even an unusual amount of rain in the near future would leave the state's water reserves far below normal.

In Roosevelt, about 30 miles southwest of New York city, the two artesian wells serving the town have gone dry.

Emergency water is being trucked in from Hightstown, 10 miles away. Rinsed ashcans, disconnected bathtubs—all available containers—were brought out to the streets by householders yesterday to get their share from the trucks.

Workers today continued driving the two wells 40 feet deeper in the hope of reaching more water.

The school and the community's three factories are closed on orders of Fire Chief Mark Klatstein. All home heating units and hot water heaters are ordered shut off.

And New Jerseyans read with a wry smile published reports of a situation which came to light in Bayonne.

Standard Oil Company tankers bound for Aruba customarily haul 200,000 gallons of drinking water each day to the barren, waterless island in the Dutch West Indies.

Aruba has plenty of oil but no water.

Where does Standard Oil get the water from the City of Bayonne?

Where does Bayonne get its water? From Wanaque reservoir, fast approaching the appearance of a dry lake.

Fire Is Extinguished

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 1 (AP)—Hundreds of volunteers armed with shovels, pine brushes and rakes fought off a roaring forest fire a mile wide yesterday and saved a small community in its path. Only one outlying home was destroyed. Smoke from the fire when threatened the Dawes community could be seen in Mobile 20 miles distant. Farmers drove tractors to the scene and plowed fire brakes to help check the blaze which reached a depth of from three to five miles.

Countess Loses Appeal
London, Dec. 1 (AP)—The American-born Countess of Moray lost in the House of Lords today an appeal from a court decision depriving her of a £150,000 ($420,000) trust fund from her husband's estate. The countess is the former Barbara Murray, whose father was J. Archibald Murray of New York. She married the Earl of Moray in 1928. Her husband, the 18th earl, died in 1943. A Scottish court ruled that the trust fund went with the title to his brother, John Morton Stuart. The House of Lords upheld this finding.

U. S. May Pay Big Sum to Free Ward, Staff at Mukden

Washington, Dec. 1 (AP)—The United States may have to pay a fairly stiff sum to Chinese consulate employees before Consul General Angus Ward, and his American staff, can leave Communist-run Mukden.

Secretary of State Acheson announced yesterday that Ward is planning to work out a financial settlement on Saturday.

Officials hope he will not run into long delays resulting from claims which in other cities raised suspicions of a "shakedown" of departing Americans.

Leave of the Chinese Communist "Peoples Government" provide for dismissal fees, severance pay and other payments. A Communist announcement at Peiping, at the time Ward and four of his aides were convicted of beating a consulate employee, said one provision reads:

"When an employer discharges his employee he must pay him a dismissal fee ranging from a half month to three months of the wages of the employee."

The Mukden consulate has possibly 20 Chinese clerks and other workers. Household servants and others with claims may number 50 or more.

At Shanghai, the American consulate was under siege for several days earlier this year by Chinese former employees of the U. S. Navy who were demanding back pay.

Gen. Robert Soale, American military attache at Nanking, has been delayed for weeks in leaving China because of claims against a club of which he was formerly a director.

Another source of possible trouble has appeared in central China. There, the Communists have demanded that departing foreigners arrange with the local Chinese to guarantee payment of any claims which might arise following the foreigners' departure.

The Shanghai incident eventually was settled, and officials hope this and other cases will serve as precedents to speed a settlement at Mukden.

Excavation Is Started
Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said today that efforts of the fire department to determine the source of an odor of gasoline at 8 and 10 Hurley avenue for the past several days, led to an investigation of a gas tank of the A. R. Newcombe Co., at a gas station in the neighborhood. An excavation was started to determine if a line from the oil tank, or the tank itself, is leaking.

Termite Really Has Ancestors; Others Are Mere Nobodies

By ARTHUR EDSON
Washington, Dec. 1 (AP)—Proud people who trace their ancestry to the Mayflower got a rude jolt today. A termite, who rarely gives himself airs, can trace his ancestry back 250,000,000 years. This tidbit comes from the Smithsonian Institute, which has just completed cataloging 1,392 different species of termites.

When it turned out that the cataloging chore had been done by a Department of Agriculture man who has been studying the termite—and ways to control it—for 40 years, I promptly called Dr. Thomas E. Snyder to find out what's new in the termite world. The answer is, nothing much.

Termites have been calmly chomping wood and developing a complex social organization for 30,000,000 years. And their ancestors, Dr. Snyder said, go back 250,000,000 years. "Somewhere along the line," he said, "the family split, and one group became the cockroach." Dr. Snyder has a certain admiration for the cockroach. "He's very adaptable. He was on earth long before man, and I suspect he'll be here long after we're gone." But his real love is the termite.

Dr. Snyder met up with the termite quite by accident. Some telephone poles had been damaged, and he went out to look at them. There he saw his first queen termite—and he's been looking at termites ever since.

In this country termites measure only a quarter of an inch, with the winged adults measuring a half inch.

We got off lucky. "I have seen a tropical queen termite," said Snyder, "who was four and one-half inches long and nearly ten inches in diameter." It has been during only the last few thousand of its 30,000,000 years that the termite has given man any trouble. That's when man moved out of a cozy cave into a house, and termites moved in to chew the house.

Dr. Snyder says there's one difference between the ant and bee kings and the termite king. "The ant and the bee kings die after mating," he said. "The termite king lives on. If you're going to be a king, a termite king is much the best proposition."

I said I'd keep that in mind.

Mullen Is Appointed
Washington, Dec. 1 (AP)—Robert R. Mullen, Scarsdale, N. Y., newspaper and advertising executive yesterday was officially named as director of information for the

Mining Executive Left Estate More Than $20,000

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—James R. Hobbins, copper mining executive, who died in Butte, Mont., last Nov. 14, left his estate, formally valued at "more than $20,000," to his widow, Mrs. Bertha Hollinger Hobbins, in his will filed for probate yesterday in surrogate's court.

The will, dated Feb. 10, 1927, named Mrs. Hobbins, whose address was given as the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, sole executrix and declared:

"I am fully mindful of our daughter, Mary Alice Hobbins, but feel that my wife will make ample provision for her out of any estate I may leave."

The papers indicate that the daughter is now Mrs. Mary Hobbins Harris, of 24 Franklin road, Scarsdale, N. Y.

Dance at Sawkill

A dance will be held at St. Ann's Church hall, Sawkill, Friday night, December 2. There will be refreshments and Pappy Dietz and His Singing Sons will play for old fashioned and modern dancing.

Two Future Steel Arena Stars

These two little tiger kittens, scarcely two months old, pose with Mabel Stank, who'll train them to perform with her seven big striped cats in the steel arena. Miss Stank is one of the featured stars with Polack Brothers Circus which will give matinee and evening shows in the New York State Armory on Manor avenue, Friday and Saturday, under the auspices of Kingston Elks' Lodge. She holds the distinction of being one of the world's foremost trainers of ferocious tigers for circuses and the movies. (Freeman Photo)

In the winter, raccoons hibernate in family groups, often in well-chosen hollow trees.

North Carolina has 57 venerable plants which annually cut 110,000,000 board feet of logs.

City Bus Service To Elk's Circus

Bus service on the city bus lines to the Elk's Circus at the New York State Armory Friday and Saturday of this week will feature a bus every 20 minutes to the corner of Savoy street and Roosevelt avenue — one block from the Armory.

An official of the Kingston City Transportation Corporation stated today that two buses will operate on the Washington-Foxhall Line 3, (the Belt Line), on both Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, beginning at noon and operating through the evening. Transfers from city buses on other lines may be obtained for the Washington-Foxhall line buses which will operate every 20 minutes and will bring passengers to within a block of the circus at the Armory on Manor avenue.

Plants Have Twins Too

Berkely, Calif. (AP)—Tobacco plants have twins and triplets, and at about the same rate as people. A seed that will produce two or three seedlings usually happens about once in every thousand, says Dr. D. R. Cameron, University of California geneticist.

Checking some 100,000 seedlings since 1938, Cameron has found 120 twins and 16 triplets. The rate can be increased, he reports, by selection.

Transport Union Creates 7-Man Executive Group

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—The executive board of Local 100, Transport Workers Union, C.I.O., last night created a seven-man executive committee with "full authority to put into effect the plan of action best calculated to achieve the 12-point program" submitted to the board of transportation in July by the T.W.U. A T.W.U. membership meeting last week so authorized the board, which last night delegated this authority to the new committee, which is composed of the local's officers.

Chief of the 12 points sought by the T.W.U. are: 21 cents an hour more; 48 hours pay for 40 hours work, three weeks of paid vacation, and paid sick leave.

Hatchet, Knife Murder

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—A 59-year-old grocer was found slain in his lower east side shop last night. The murder weapons—a hatchet and knife—were found near his body, and the cash register was empty except for a few cents. The victim, Ezra Ezratty, was found dead in the store at 168 Orchard street by his son, Marvin, 17. The boy went to the store when his father failed to return at the usual time. The grocer had been struck on the head with the hatchet and stabbed in the chest with the knife.

The bark of the slippery elm is used in making cough lozenges.

Blooming Television!

New York, (AP)—A "bloom" in television never means a flower. Rather is it the glare caused when too much light from an object is reflected into the lens of a camera. As a result of over-brightness, the camera tube tends to obscure picture detail and a blob or dark spot is produced in the picture. An example of this effect would be the white bow on a man's shirt against the background of his dark tuxedo.

Huks Give Help

Manila, Dec. 1 (AP)—A thousand Hukbalahaps under Luis Tirona were reported today marching to the aid of 600 political rebels battling government forces 60 miles south of Manila. The report has not been confirmed. But government forces took precautions by protecting their flank. The Hukbalahaps, a Tagalog phrase roughly translated meaning armed guerrillas, demand redistribution of land to the peasants. They have been opposing the Philippines government since they stopped fighting the Japanese at the end of the war. The group, led by leftist Tirona, once a member of the Philippine Congress, is composed largely of peasants. The Huks have been concentrated in the swamps and mountains of Central Luzon, about 100 miles north of current fighting in Batangas province.

Jury Is Discharged

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—A Federal Court was discharged after it reported a deadlock last night in the trial of Isidore Ginsberg, 54, an attorney once described by a Senate committee as a gray marketer in building materials. Judge Leo F. Raybel set January 5 as the tentative date for a new trial in Brooklyn Federal Court. Ginsberg, who defended himself, moved for a judgment of acquittal. The motion will be heard next Wednesday. The government charged Ginsberg received $15,921 from contractors and builders as advance payments on materials and failed to deliver them. The defendant lives at 33-32 89th street, Jackson Heights, Queens.

Tip Called Erroneous

Boston, Dec. 1 (AP)—The coast guard today wrote off an "erroneous" a report that a navy plane crashed off the easterly tip of Long Island and that the pilot had bailed out. The coast guard said it found no signs of wreckage after a thorough search of the area. The report originated with two unidentified fishermen.

Richard Strauss Is Musical Society Topic

Musical Society met with Mrs. Bernard Forst, 32 Maiden Lane, Wednesday night for a special study meeting. The program concerned Richard Strauss who died in Bavaria, September 8, and has been described as the last important link with the great master-composers of the 18th and 19th centuries. Miss Ethel Mutterstock, vice president, opened the meeting and introduced Miss Caroline Little and Mrs. Harry C. Seitz who had charge of the program. Several members of the club assisted in reading portions of a biographical sketch about the composer.

Strauss, who was not a relative of either the Austrian waltz king, Johann Strauss, or Oscar Strauss who composed "The Chocolate Soldier," is known in three fields of music. Among these are his great symphonic tone poems such as "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks," "Don Juan," "Don Quixote," "Death and Transfiguration," "An Alpine Symphony," "Salome" and "Elektra," and songs, "Ariadne auf Naxos," "Zuleika und Die Musikanten," "Standchen" and "Widmung." His compositions started the musical world of his day with their orchestration which today have become commonplace and loved. He became a sort of musical "bad boy" playing mischievous pranks through the medium of orchestration and either chuckling or smiling enigmatically when questioned about them.

The composer was born in Munich, Germany, in 1864. His father was a French horn virtuoso, a member of the Royal Opera at Munich and taught at the Royal Academy of Music. He insisted that his son become a great master and the boy received a thorough academic training as well as a rigorous musical education. Important influence in his youth were his meeting and continued friendship with Alexander Ritter, a nephew of Wagner, who persuaded the young man to turn from the more rigid classical forms to the freer atmosphere of program music; and also Strauss's travels through southern Europe. He attained stature as a conductor serving as bandmaster in Weimar, first conductor, Munich opera; and at Berlin Royal Opera. He visited America twice in 1904 and 1921. His most productive years as a composer were in his thirties. His later years showed a decline in the quality of composition, although his works were always received warmly by the musical world. His Horn Concerto No. 2 written in 1943 received its American premiere in October 1948.

During the first World War he composed a war hymn for the Kaiser. Under Nazism in the early 1930's, he was appointed president of the Nazi Music Chamber, replaced noted conductors who refused to come under the political yoke, and wrote an Olympic hymn for 1936. Shortly afterward, he disagreed with the regime and was forced into retirement. He lived in Switzerland and Bavaria. After the war he was cleared by a de-Nazification court and he conducted a concert in London. Strauss celebrated his 85th birthday in June, became seriously ill in August and died at his Alpine home the following month.

His works are particularly popular this year, both the Metropolitan, and New York Opera Companies opened their seasons with his operas and almost all of the major orchestras are including his works in their programs. Recordings played for the group were waiters from Der Rosenkavalier; "On the Shore of Sorrento" from "Aus Italien"; song, "Dream at Twilight," the last portion of "Death and Transfiguration," and the entire "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks."

After the meeting the group enjoyed singing several part songs and Bach chorales under the direction of Mrs. William Ryland with Miss Little and Mrs. William S. Ellings at the piano. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. A. Noble Graham and Mrs. Clyde Wonderly, Sr. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of yellow button chrysanthemums and yellow candles.

The next meeting will be December 12 at the home of Mrs. Graham, 21 Janet street, when the Christmas program will be given.

Navy Boxers to Feature Next B'nai B'rith Ring Bill December 8

Hardy, Manzolillo Also Slated With Other A.A.U. Favorites

The next card of B'nai B'rith boxing bouts in the municipal auditorium, scheduled Thursday night, December 8, will feature a trio of Uncle Sam's hard hitting navy battlers from the U.S.S. Rochester. Recently back from a Mediterranean cruise, the anxious leather-pushing gobs are matched with the cream of the fistful crop in the Adirondack District of the A.A.U.

According to Bill Singer, boxing chairman of the local organization, there will be three star five-round bouts and five threes.

"There should be a lot of action this way," Singer said, "because more of the anxious youngsters will have an opportunity to box their way to top spots on local cards."

Singer pointed to Libby Manzolillo, Jeffersonville lightweight, who became a local favorite as a preliminary scrapper and is now in the star bout class.

The three headline lives on the card for the 8th are:

Jackie Harris, best middleweight on the U.S.S. Rochester, rated as one of the toughest punchers in the navy, vs. Jimmy Hardy, Canaan, who has a string of knockouts to his credit, his recent victim having been one of Canaan's outstanding amateurs.

Allie Haygood, lightweight sensation of the Rochester crew, vs. Libby Manzolillo, Jeffersonville favorite, who carries dynamite in both hands. Haygood is a kayo puncher, too, having polished off Bob Herrera of Utica in the third round of their match when the Rochester sailors appeared here last February.

Billy Hunter, seasoned featherweight from Rochester, who won three times in Kingston boxing with New England ring teams vs. Harry Smith, rough and ready little action fighter from Canaan.

Boxing at the auditorium on February 24, Hunter outpointed Ray Field of Utica, one of the sharpest amateurs in the state and also took the measure of Jimmy Ray and Reggie Henderson.

Smith has a long list of victories to his credit at the Broadway Punch Bowl, having defeated Rufus Rodgers several times, Howard Keyes, Roosevelt Clark, Tito Arguzzi, Dick Hazard and others.

The five three-round bouts will be announced in a day or so, Singer said. Joe Atkinson, local middleweight, making a comeback, is matched in one of them, and in the others amateurs from along the Hudson valley will get a chance to go into action.

Starting time of the first preliminary is 9 p. m. Tickets are on sale at B'nai B'rith Club, Wall street.

Cochrane, Miller Back to Athletics

Philadelphia, Dec. 1 (AP)—It'll be like old home week around Shibe Park next spring with Mickey Cochrane, Jimmy Dykes and Bing Miller whooping it up as they did in the Philadelphia Athletics' championship days 20 years ago.

The triumvirate was completed yesterday when the Athletics announced the signing of Cochrane and Miller as coaches to replace the dismissed Al Simmons, and Earl Bruckner. Dykes was with the club last season as coach.

The signing of Miller, for the last eight years coach of the Chicago White Sox, was expected. But the signing of Cochrane came as a complete surprise to the several score sports writers and radio announcers attending the press luncheon.

Cochrane has been out of the major league picture since August, 1938, when he was released as manager of the Detroit Tigers after winning two American League pennants and one world championship in five years.

Connie Mack, Jr., youngest of Connie Mack's three sons, had no more than announced Cochrane's return to the A's before rumors started flying as to the direction of the club when the 56-year-old Mack retires as manager.

The grand old man of baseball is expected to step down after next season—his 50th at the helm of the Athletics. He has said several times that his second son, Earl, will become manager.

But there were many who saw in the signing of Cochrane an eventual change in either the club's front office or field setup.

"Why?" was asked, "would Cochrane leave a money-making ranch and a lucrative automobile agency at Billings, Mont., unless he was promised something more than a coaching job?"

But Cochrane insisted he was hired strictly as a pitching coach without any promises as to the future.

P.G.A. Happy Family, Re-Names President

Southern Pines, N. C., Dec. 1 (AP)—Apparently one big, happy family, the Professional Golfers Association of America today turned its attention to the teaching and educational phase of the game as its annual meeting neared its end.

The differences of opinion in evidence during earlier sessions were laid aside as the group patrolled itself on the back for yesterday's well done job—that of selecting a slate of officers highly endorsed in most quarters.

Veteran Los Angeles professional Joe Novak as president for a second term, working with a new secretary and treasurer.

Horton Smith of Detroit, veteran tournament and international star, became secretary and Harry Moffit of Toledo treasurer.

Lowe, Ghear Star as Sicklers Turn Back Cornwall by 56-52

Last Period Rally Decides O-S Game

Two ex-Kingston High School court stalwarts—Kenny Lowe and Bobby Ghear—ignited a fourth period attack Wednesday night at the municipal auditorium to give Sickler's Colonials a 56 to 52 victory over the Cornwall Highlanders in a regular Orange-Sullivan League game.

Lowe, a former forward under the Maroon and White banner, and Ghear, a strapping guard, supplied the punch with eight points apiece in a dazzling display of power in that final quarter to upend the visiting Highlanders who had held the edge at halftime and the third period.

Both Lowe and Ghear bucketed 12 points as did lanky George Bloom who nailed down an even dozen points to give the Colonials their second victory in three starts in the O-S circuit. The two teams collided again tonight on the Cornwall court.

It was a nip and tuck affair for the first three periods with the lead changing hands at various times.

Cornwall jumped off to a slim 21-19 edge at half time and still held the upperhand by 38-36 at the close of the third session. Then Lowe and Ghear went to work.

Following Lowe, Bloom and Ghear in the scoring column for the Colonials were Andy Murphy and Dan McGraw who found the range for nine markers apiece. Tony Albany completed the local scoring with a pair of points.

Allesi, center for the visiting Highlanders, led his club with 12 points while Hodges and Walsh followed up with nine markers.

In the prelim the Woodstock

Varsity scored a 32 to 25 victory over the Newkirk Aces. Wilson led the winners with 10 points. Kozlowski accounted for 12 points for the losers.

The Colonials will return to the auditorium next Wednesday night to meet the strong Newburgh Varsity cagers in a regular O-S game.

49ers Call Off Threatened Grid Strike After Seeking $500 Bonus Per Player

San Francisco, Dec. 1 (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers pro football squad called off a threatened strike today.

A team spokesman said the 32 players decided their obligation to fans who want to see them play the New York Yankees here Sunday was more important than their demand for a $500 bonus per player for the game. Sunday's affair is a semi-final playoff in the All American Conference.

Earlier team Captain Norman Standley, 245 pound fullback and onetime Stanford great, and halfback Len Eshmont, former Fordham flash, speaking as "elder spokesmen" said as "elder wouldn't show up for the game unless they were promised the bonus."

Tony Morabito, one of the club owners, said nothing doing. He told the 49ers to turn out for practice this morning or the season would be over as far as they were concerned.

The squad of 32 went into a huddle last night. They came out of it at midnight with the announcement there would be no strike. Their spokesman handed out a statement saying:

Loyalty to Fans

"It is the unanimous decision of the team that our first and most important loyalty is to the fans who have supported us so loyally. We feel the same obligation to the coaching staff."

"The * * * business principle which brought about the difference * * * is secondary in the hearts of the team as compared to our obligation to our fans."

"We therefore have decided to enter next Sunday's contest with a most determined will to win. We still feel our principle involved in requesting remuneration for next Sunday's game was most fair and sound, since all of us were under the impression at the time we signed our 1949 contracts that compensation for this game would be forthcoming."

The 49ers won second place last Sunday in final All America Conference standings by beating the Yankees 35-14 in a bruising game. The Yanks wound up third and the two teams are scheduled to open the playoff here.

Tony Morabito met the strike threat yesterday by saying if the team did not report for today's practice, the Sunday game would be forfeited to the Yankees and the squad disbanded.

Morabito said player contracts specifically called for appearances in all exhibition, training camp, conference and playoff games without additional compensation and that conference rules prohibit player bonuses for playoffs.

Cancellation of Sunday's game would have meant refunding an estimated $75,000 in advance ticket sales and the 49er owners would have to meet the Yankees' guarantee of $15,000.

Sievers, Newcombe Elected Top Rookies

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—Roy Sievers, slugging outfielder of the St. Louis Browns, and Don Newcombe, fireballing ace of the Brooklyn pitching staff, have been named the outstanding baseball rookies of the major leagues for 1949.

Sievers was chosen the top freshman in the American League and Newcombe headed the newcomers in the National in the annual poll of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

This is the first year the writers chose rookie standouts for the two leagues. In the past they have picked one for the entire majors.

Shortstop Alvin Dark of the Boston Braves winning last year and second baseman Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn the year before.

Blak Leads Present Day Football Setup

New York, Dec. 1 (AP)—After half a century of rules juggling, college football reached a state of near perfection.

Earl (Red) Blak, the army coach, joins Columbia's Lou Little in saying that it has.

"We have the greatest football right now the country can possibly have," West Point's head tactician declared yesterday in leveling a blast at foes of the two-platoon system.

"We would be downright nuts to go back to thinking in terms of 1934 and 1935. Only the old guard is against the two-platoon."

Blak's remarks came at lunch-cor meeting at which he was presented the winner trophy, honoring his unbeaten team as the outstanding college eleven in the east.

"The two-platoon game, as we play it has much more speed than the old game, and it is safer," he declared. "We had only five timeouts due to injury all this season and only one man did not return to the game."

Royals Win Squeaker Over High Falls, 37-36

The Stone Ridge Royals opened their 1949-50 cage season Tuesday night by edging the High Falls
Firemen Juniors in a real 37 to 36 squeaker. The lead changed hands several times and was not decided until the final seconds of the contest.

Bill Osterhout led the score for the Royals with a six-point spurge in the final quarter while "Slim" Ross decided the game by converting a foul shot.

Ed Campbell, forward for the losers, bucketed 21 points while Ross sparked the Royals' attack with 17.

The score:
Stone Ridge Royals (37)—F.
Spongia, Jr. 1-0-2; Ross, Jr. 8-1-17;
Osterhout, Jr. 8-2-8; Slicker, Jr.

Jr. 0-0-0; Lewis, Jr. 0-0-2.
High Falls Juniors (36)—

Packers Retain Curly Lambeau Through '51

Green Bay, Wis., Dec. 1 (AP)— Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau, who founded the Green Bay Packers on a city sandlot, will remain at the National Football League team's helm another two years.

Lambeau's contract was renewed at a long board of directors meeting last night. The board also authorized issuance of another $200,000 worth of stock.

Directors declined to comment on terms of the contract but indicated it was similar to his current one which expires Dec. 31.

This one called for $25,000 a year for serving as head coach and general manager.

Directors indicated that Lambeau may return to the head coaching position he gave up last fall in order to move to the front office. One director said that move was made only because of the Packers financial situation.

Waterbury, Conn.—Tommy
Clarke, 147, Waterbury and Vic
Cardell, 145, Hartford, drew 12.

New York (St. Nicholas Arena)
—Gene Burton, 147½, New York, knocked out Roy Carter, 146½,
New York, 7.

Newcombe, who won 17 and lost eight for the National League champion Dodgers, was an almost unanimous pick of the 24-man sen- ior league panel.
